

JOIN US FOR
AUTISM AWARENESS DAY
AT CITI FIELD!

Sunday, May 21 • 1:10 pm Mets vs. Los Angeles Angels

Join us in raising awareness for autism, a disorder that affects 1 in 68 U.S. school-aged children.

A portion of each ticket sold through this advance offer will help
AHA continue providing vital services to the autism community.

- Early entry for participating families through the Bullpen Gate beginning at 11:10 a.m.
- Pre-game party in the Bullpen Plaza includes Hosh Yoga, Kicking the Spectrum Karate, Queens Museum arts & crafts, and New York Therapy Animals.
- The Cozy Corner will be open all game long for children in need of a quiet break.
- All kids 12 and under are invited to run the bases following the game in the Mr. Met Dash.

Bud Light Landing* Seats = $50

*Seating will be Sensory-friendly, exclusive for Autism Awareness Day participants, with reduced volume and graphics.

Limited number of tickets available – sold on a first come, first served basis.

DEADLINE TO PURCHASE IS APRIL 24TH.

If you would like to sit together as a group, please place one final order.

To purchase tickets please visit www.ahany.org.

Please contact us at Events@ahany.org with any questions.